Social

Five Seniors Entertained

Five senior girls, members of the Madrona Campfire society, were delightfully entertained at an informal luncheon given Tuesday evening, May 18, by Mrs. James A. Westcott at her home on North Seventh street. The girls entertained were the Misses Florence Riddle, Louise Pinkerton, Helen Bobzien, Editha Vincent and Josephine Osborne. A daintily served luncheon of pineapple salad, tomato soufflé, creamed peas, orange mufins, strawberry sherbet and cookies did full justice to the hostess. About eight o'clock the merry party was made complete by the arrival of five young gentlemen in the persons of Garnet Best, Jo Pardee, Earle Voorhies and Winfield Gilkey. After many games the jolly party was concluded by a lively Virginia reel in which all participated.

Sewing Club Entertains Oregonians

The ladies of the "Sewing Club" were pleasing hostesses to the members of the "Oregonians" Monday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. George S. Calhoun, at 512 North Fifth street. The ladies enjoyed a jolly time throughout the afternoon in conversation and sewing until ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The guests of the club were, Mrs. E. C. Dixon, Mrs. E. T. McKinstry, Mrs. W. H. Flanagan, Mrs. James T. Tuffs, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mrs. W. E. Dean, Mrs. J. P. Martin, Mrs. Reymers, Mrs. Catherine Gray and her sister Mrs. Grimes who is visiting in the city.

Progressive Dinner

The progressive dinner given Thursday evening by the ladies of the M. E. church has been termed a veritable success. After purchasing tickets at the Baker home on north Fourth street which served as the Union Depot, the hungry crowd found places at the Presley home for the first course. Victrola music furnished delightful entertainment while the hundred happy hungry folks hovered o'er the bounteously laid tables which were daintily arranged with colors of pink and white.

The second course was served at the church parlors. Here the crowd was honored by musical numbers with Miss Winifred Flanagan at the piano, while Miss Bertha Calhoun delighted all present by the reading given in her own pleasing way. Six small girls in pink and white were charming little waitresses. At the parsonage the three course dinner was concluded with ice cream and cake after which various games furnished entertainment for the rest of the evening.

Mrs. Walker Entertains

Tuesday afternoon, May 15, Mrs. W. W. Walker entertained at her home at 721 North Fourth street for her sister, Mrs. Richardson, who leaves for Chili, South America, next week.

Those present were Mrs. W. C. Hale, Mrs. O. S. Blanchard, Mrs. P. P. Proctor, Mrs. N. E. McDuff, Mrs. Jos. Wolke, and the Misses Clara and Alma Wolke, Miss Cora Smith, Miss Gladys I. Penn, Miss LaCosta Mangum, Miss Lydia White and Mrs. Walker.

The ladies brought sewing and spent the afternoon in informal conversation, fancy work and music. A dainty luncheon, attractively served on small tables on the north porch closed the delightfully spent afternoon.

In Honor of Seniors

The Senior class colors, purple and white, were used in decoration of the Gilkey home at the dinner given Friday evening, May 19, in honor of four seniors, Florence Riddle, Freida Carter, Lynn Sabin and Winfield Gilkey. The place cards were run through with purple ribbon bearing the number '16. The table was tastily arranged with the same colors, with a large bowl of white roses in the center. A pleasing feature of the dinner was a large white cake decorated with a purple sixteen.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Riddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sabin and family and Miss Freida Carter.

Ladies Meet at Spa

Tuesday afternoon of last week members and friends of the Spazetta club met at the Spa Parlors to hold their regular business and social meeting of the week, the Mesdames Miller and Pietta Morre being the hostesses for the afternoon.

Those present were Mrs. Earl Young, Mrs. Daisy Crouch, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. A. N. Evanson, Mrs. G.

W. Winetrou, Mrs. Anna Ahlf, Mrs. J. R. Gunning and their visitors Mrs. Armentrout, Mrs. Corliss Topping, Mrs. N. E. Gilkison, and Miss Norma Sweetland.

Birthday Surprise Party

A quiet, pleasant social affair was held at the pretty suburban home of Mrs. H. S. Prescott Monday afternoon as a surprise and in honor of Mrs. Mary Longenecker's birthday. The invited guests were members of Bethany Presbyterian Woman's Bible class.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and fancy work until 5:30, when refreshments of cake and ice cream were served around a daintily arranged table. The large white birthday cake, surrounded by a wreath of white roses, was cut and served by Mrs. Longenecker and Mrs. Van Dyke.

After all were seated, and before the cake and cream were served, each guest singly presented the guest of honor with a pretty bluebird souvenir card on which had been written some verse or sentiment in memory of the day. Needless to add how graciously each little remembrance was accepted.

Those present were Mrs. Prescott and Mrs. Van Dyke, hostesses, and guest of honor, Mrs. Longenecker, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Bestul, Mrs. Jess and Mrs. Mallory.

Presbyterian Breakfast

Between sixty and seventy people took breakfast at the parlors of the Presbyterian church Friday of last week. It was a May breakfast given by the ladies of the Presbyterian association and its purpose was to get the people of the town out early so they could cast an early vote at the polls. The menu was strawberries and cream, cereal, eggs, parker house rolls, coffee and doughnuts.

Red roses were used as decoration for the seven tables which were kept full from seven until nine thirty a. m.

Christian Endeavor

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church spent Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Grant Thrasher on East K street. After a short business meeting those present enjoyed an all-round good time until refreshments of cake and chocolate were served.

In Honor of New Brides

Mrs. Donald Calvert was charming hostess at the 500 party given in honor of new brides of the year at her home on North Sixth street.

Guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Harry K. Clark, C. A. Winetrou, Tom Fry, Roscoe Bratton, J. D. MacVicar, Clyde Martin, Paul Blanchard, A. K. Cass, Roy Bartlett, W. L. Bleckner, P. P. Proctor, N. F. Macduff, Elmer Dunbar, Hammon, George MacVicar, E. T. McKinstry, Lloyd Dyer, Frank Mashburn, Geo. Donnell, P. B. Herman, H. L. Stonaker, E. H. Balsiger, A. A. Flynn, and the Misses Minnie Reymers, Berenice Quinlan, Allene Dunbar, Blanche Wile, LaCosta Mangum, Reba Smith, Leah Slover, and Courtney Ross. Light refreshments were served.

Auction Bridge Party

Mrs. A. C. Hough entertained six tables at auction bridge Wednesday afternoon at her home on West A street.

Those present were Mesdames Eaton, Harmon, Sidler, Bigger, McKinstry, Stricker, Hobart, Blanchard, Catherine Gray, Nutting, Calvert, Albrine, Clevenger, Baker, Macduff, Mashburn, Gunnell, and the Misses Gray, Ball, and Grimes.

Mrs. Blanchard received highest score and was presented with a beautiful hand-painted plate.

Chaldean Tablets

The clay tablets of Chaldean, probably the very earliest writing materials used by man, were of different sizes, the largest being flat and measuring 9 by 6½ inches, while the smallest were slightly convex and in some cases not more than an inch long. In the same ruins with the tablets have been found the glass lenses which were used by their readers. The writing was done while the tablets were still soft by a little iron tracer, not pointed, but triangular at the end. The tablets, having been inscribed on both sides and accurately numbered, were baked in ovens and stored away in the state libraries.

FIRMNESS OF PURPOSE.

Firmness of purpose is one of the most necessary sinews of character and one of the best instruments of success. Without it genius wastes its efforts in a maze of inconsistencies.—Lord Chesterfield.

RAILWAY MEN HEAR PRESIDENT

Salisbury, N. C., May 20.—President Wilson talked "full dinner pail" to a great crowd of railway shopmen at Spencer, N. C., today. The gathering was informal, the shopmen, the president, Senator Overman and Secretary Daniel all taking a hand.

"We're working full time, and the dinner pail is full," called the crowd as Wilson spoke.

"Yes, and those pails will be filled to overflowing," the president responded.

He urged the confirmation of Trade Commissioner Rublee, whose nomination is facing defeat in the senate.

Many women attended the meeting, clamoring to see Mrs. Wilson but she was not up yet.

At Greensboro the president spoke again, saying:

"We are at the beginning of a new age. We must be sure not to give countenance to men who try to hold us back. Some who now control the republican party have their heads over their shoulders, looking backward, not forward. They do not know the problems of the new day."

He referred frequently to his nomination of Rublee.

WEDDING BELLS ARE OUT OF TUNE

North Bend, Ore., May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Tully today sought the advice of a lawyer to straighten out a matrimonial tangle.

To make legal the birth of their two children, Tully probably will go to Los Angeles and try to secure a divorce from his first wife, who also has re-married since her separation from Tully.

Tully is a contractor. He was formerly a San Diego real estate dealer. He separated from Mrs. Tully No. 1 in Los Angeles. They agreed upon a divorce. A year later in San Diego, Tully met Mrs. Tully No. 2, who had been educated in a San Francisco convent. She was a niece of William Wood, millionaire Boston wool manufacturer. Although Wood opposed the match, Tully married his niece and they came to Coos Bay.

Yesterday Tully received a letter from his former wife, asking where to find the records of their divorce. He telegraphed to Los Angeles and was told that no divorce ever had been granted.

Mrs. Tully No. 1 is married, to Martin Schroder. Mrs. Tully No. 2 probably will go to Los Angeles and remain with her father until the matrimonial tangle is straightened out.

AMERICAN REVOLUTIONIST TO BE LIBERATED

Washington, May 20.—Ambassador Page cabled the state department today that John J. Kilgallon of New York, held as prisoner in Dublin on account of alleged participation in the Irish revolution, would probably be liberated by the British authorities.

Washington, May 20.—Official confirmation of Colonel Sibley's intention to return from Mexico with his Big Bend expeditionary force reached the war department today.

THE CROWN PRINCE DIRECTS CAMPAIGN

Rome, May 20.—Having arrived at Trent with his staff, the Austrian crown prince today began directing the campaign against Vicenza, the Verdun of the Italian front. General Cadorna, the Italian chief, is likely to go to the Trentino front. Further Italian retirements before the terrific Austrian pounding were officially admitted today. But the defenders have every confidence that the enemy offensive has nearly spent its strength.

With a heavy sacrifice of men and ammunition, the Austrians only penetrated the Italian frontier once, in Astico valley. The invaders are still 12 miles from Vicenza, the reported goal of the Austrians.

A quarter of a million of Austrian troops are engaged around the Adige valley. Losses on both sides have been staggering, but no figures are available.

The Austrians attempted to catch the Italians off their guard while important troop movements were under way. After three days' fighting, the Italians, rather than sacrifice men needlessly, retired to other positions.

Great aerial activity is being manifested on the Tyrolean front.
